A. BRIEF OVERVIEW OF AGENCY SETTING
A public high school with approximately 1100 students.

B. DESCRIPTION OF CLIENT GROUP
Freshmen through seniors from differing socio-economic backgrounds.

C. LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES
Broad spectrum of opportunities: e.g. individual counseling (not psychotherapy), group work, networking with social services. This internship is fairly open to meeting the interests and abilities of the practicum student.

The practicum student must be mature and self-motivated because supervision time is somewhat limited. However, supervision and consultation is always available upon request. This arrangement seems to have been suitable in the past.

D. EXPECTATIONS OF STUDENTS
- Ability to work with young people, ages 14-18
- Ability to work with sensitivity when relating to faculty and staff
- Flexibility
- Commitment
- Regular hours
- Confidentiality
- Discretion to know when to refer and when to seek assistance
